His services are purely temporary, the first two years of which will be on probation. He will not be entitled to any notice of termination of service or pay in lieu thereof, if such termination is due to the expiry of the sanction to the post which he hold or the expiry of the officiating vacancy or is due to his physical or mental incapacity or due to the removal or dismissal as a disciplinary measure after compliance with the provision of Clause-2 of the Article 311 of the Constitution of India. Otherwise his services are terminable on 14 days notice on either side. However, the Appointing authority reserves the right of termination of his services forthwith or before the expiry of the stipulated period of notice or unexpired portion thereof, by paying him the pay and allowance for that period.

His continuance in service is subject to qualifying for the duties prescribed for the post he hold, fulfilling such other general conditions of service as may be laid down from time to time. His earlier appointment will not confer on him any claim for seniority over others whose appointment is being delayed for one reason or other and compliance to all rules and regulations as applicable to his appointment.

If at any later stage, the certificates submitted by him in support of his educational qualification, community details etc. is found to be not genuine, he is liable to be removed from service without any notice.

He will be governed by the newly introduced restructured defined contribution pension system applicable to all new entrants to Central Government Service including Railway Service with effect from 01.01.2004 in terms of Railway Board's letter No. F(E)III/2003/PNI/24 (R.B.E. No.225/03) dated 31.12.2003 and No.2004/AC-II/21/1 dated 19.02.2004 (circulated under PBC No. 36/2004). The existing Railway Services (Pension) Rules, 1993 including commutation of Pension Rules and Extra-ordinary Pension Rules, and State Provident Fund Rules as contained in Indian Railway Establishment Code Vol.I (1985 Edition) 1995 Reprint, shall not be applicable to the above named newly recruited/appointed candidate. For the purpose of leave he will be governed by the Leave Rules as admissible and as corrected from time to time.
