Her service is purely temporary, the first two years of which will be on probation. She will not be entitled to any notice of termination of service or pay in lieu thereof, if such termination is due to the expiry of the sanction to the post which she holds or the expiry of the officiating vacancy or is due to her physical or mental incapacity or due to the removal or dismissal as a disciplinary measure after compliance with the provision of Clause-2 of the Article 311 of the Constitution of India. Otherwise her services are terminable on 14 days notice on either side. However, the Appointing authority reserves the right of termination of her service forthwith or before the expiry of the stipulated period of notice or unexpired portion thereof, by paying the pay and allowance for that period.

Her continuance in service is subject to:

- Qualifying for the duties prescribed for the post she holds.
- Fulfilling such other general conditions of service as may be laid down from time to time.
- Compliance to all rules and regulations as applicable to her appointment.

The appointment is provisional and is subject to certificates pertaining to educational qualification and community being verified through the proper channels and if the verification reveals that the claim of community and educational qualification is false, the services of the above candidate will be terminated forthwith without assigning any further reasons and without prejudice to such further action as may be taken under the provisions of the Indian Penal Code for production of false certificates.
